March 2012 -- MuscogeeMoms.com and local parenting magazine, Hoo Knows: Family & Kids of the Chattahoochee Valley are co-hosting a “summer fun” resource fair for families in the Chattahoochee Valley area.

EVENT INFO:

The 2nd annual Kids Camp & Summer Fun Fair will be held at the Columbus Civic Center on Saturday, April 14th from 12:30-4 p.m. Admission is $1 per person. Proceeds will be donated to Greater Columbus Partners in Education (PIE).

Camp directors from across the Chattahoochee Valley will be on site to share information about their summer programs and to answer questions. Parents are invited to come shop summer fun options for their kids and their families among companies providing Camps, Activities, Attractions, and More.

There will be free activities for the kids such as interactive games with the Columbus Cottonmouths and Columbus Lions, plus crafts, face painting, games, mascots and more.

“Visit all the vendors and you’ll be registered to win numerous prizes, including a free birthday party from Chill Yogurt Cafe, a two-night stay at Callaway Gardens, a two-night stay at George T. Bagby State Park and Lodge, and more!” said Tammy Usie, publisher of Family & Kids.

During the Fair the Columbus Lions Youth Football League will be playing in the main arena of the Civic Center, and fair attendees are welcome to watch. Those who want to catch an actual Lions game, can return later that night to see them take on the Louisiana Swashbucklers.

Also, the elementary school with the most students in attendance at the fair will win a free ice skating party from the Columbus Civic Center and the Columbus Ice Rink.

Kids Camp & Summer Fun Fair is sponsored by Chill Yogurt & Yocakes, St Francis Orthopaedic Institute, Columbus Lions, 88.5 The Truth, WRBL News 3, Applebee's, Calvary Christian School, Pediatrics at Brookstone Centre, and Carmike Cinemas.
